

MINUTES OF THE MEMBERSHIP MEETING OF SEPTEMBER 13, 1990
at the Field House, Smith College

Five College LEARNING IN RETIREMENT Program

1. Bill Gibson, presiding, announced:
 - The existence of our new office at the Smith College Field House.
 - Eleanor Reid, part-time paid coordinator, is there Monday - Thursday mornings from 9:30 to noon.
 - Because of our close relationship with Five Colleges Inc. and the assistance provided by Jean Stabell, chief financial officer, things have gone smoothly since we have launched out on our own.
2. Eleanor Reid reported more than 80 LIR members this fall and handed out membership cards.
3. Bill Gibson is working on the parking permit situation for group meetings at the Faculty Club at UMass. We are for the first time paying a $60.00 annual membership fee for use of the Faculty Club.
4. Wanted: Anyone interested in proposing a 2nd semester seminar on the art and history of Greece. A special Elderhostel excursion is scheduled for June 1991.
5. A draft of proposed LIR by-laws will be sent to members before the next general meeting.
6. Brief reports were given by committee chairpersons. Seminar moderators were introduced.
7. Sally Lawton, Special Events chair, announced a tour of the Smith College greenhouses on September 17 at 3 pm.
8. Paintings by LIR members Priscilla Dolloff and Claire Manwell will be included in an art exhibit opening September 17 in Memorial Hall in Northampton. The exhibit is sponsored by the Northampton Council on Aging.

S. Lehman
L. Leininger