at the Red Barn, Hampshire College

The meeting was called to order by the President, Harley Unger, at 10:50 A.M.

Suzanne Lehman, cochairperson of the Curriculum Committee, thanked the moderators of the Fall '95 seminars and introduced the moderators of the spring '96 seminars. Each of the latter indicated what his/her seminar would entail.

Ginny Senders, chairperson of the Winter Events Committee, was called upon to briefly describe the January Programs which will be held on the five Wednesdays in January. She urged that members bring friends to introduce them to L.I.R..

Ted Belsky indicated that the Great Decisions course would be held beginning on Friday, Mar. 15, and continuing through Friday, April 19. Registration will be at 9:00 A.M. the program will begin at 9:30, and Laura Shelling will be in charge. Ted also indicated that the Special Events Committee is developing a form that will help moderators who want to suggest events to the committee in conjunction with their seminars.

Doris Guillumette pointed out that her fall French Conversation seminar was adequate preparation for the Elderhostel program in France from this coming May 30 to June 21.

Laura Simon, on behalf of herself and Lena Snook, then thanked her hard-working Meetings Committee and indicated that people would be invited to the luncheon buffet one table at a time as has been done in the past. Harley also thanked Karen Tatro for her very large part in making these events such a success.

Being warned by the President that we were not to indulge any Hampshire College sheep, should they appear, in salad or wine, the human company was invited to partake of sparkling wine, cider, and hors d'oeuvres.

Respectfully submitted,

Grace S Rollason
