

Writing to Remember (Purple)

Writing and reading the life journey for oneself and with others

Purpose: Whether writing as reminiscence, or as an exploration of the meaning of the life journey, the value of written recollections is unequalled for documenting and sharing a legacy. The wisdom of thoughtfully supported responses supports the goal of further writing.

| Location:      | Rockridge Retirement Community, Library, Northampton            |

Description: Participants in Writing to Remember create essays, letters, journals, poetry, diaries and use other options for their remembering journey. Writing may be rough draft, revisions in progress, or a completed work. To enhance the participation of hearing-impaired members, advance copies of the writing are shared. Presenters specifically identify the feedback they would like to receive. Special needs such as using a surrogate reader are facilitated. The venue will offer maximum accessibility.

Role of participants: Members prepare and read two pieces of original writing related to their life experiences on a preplanned ten-week schedule.

Resources: A resource list will be available at the Preview for potential members. Participants will be invited to make their own recommendations for additions to the cumulative reference list.

About the Moderators: Stephanie Levin and Ina Luadtke are experienced moderators and are privileged to continue to learn with members of this Writing to Remember seminar group.

Maximum number of participants: 12

Auditors accepted: no

Enrollment is limited to only ONE Writing to Remember seminar per semester.
