PURPOSE:

The purpose of this seminar is to share your life experiences with fellow participants and, at the same time, record them for yourself and your family.

DESCRIPTION:

Long one of the most popular LIR seminars (previously called "Autobiographical Writing"), Writing to Remember offers its members the opportunity to get to know themselves and each other a little better.

Many participants have taken advantage of this seminar to write their family story for their children and grandchildren. The writing takes all forms, from rough drafts to polished pieces, and all are welcome. The group offers the writer feedback and, if desired, will offer suggestions for revisions and/or possible additions as well as clarifications. This seminar is not a course in how to write; it aims, rather, to stimulate and encourage you to continue writing your own story, your writing can center on the events of family life, career experiences, or anything else you would like to tell about yourself.

ROLE OF PARTICIPANTS:

Each participant has the opportunity to read aloud two pieces of original writing during the semester. The atmosphere is relaxed, but the serious efforts of all concerned help make this a rewarding experience for everyone.

ABOUT THE MODERATORS:

Catharine is a retired UMass faculty member from the Department of Consumer Studies, and Ombudsperson. Catherine has moderated this seminar previously. Trish is a wife, mother, grandmother, and teacher of writing with children and grateful for the opportunity now to write stories and get inspired by the stories of others!
